

CL U13 & U15 GIRLS HEAD COACH

Job Description

Cricket Leinster's role is to promote, foster and organise the playing of cricket in the province of Leinster. Its Strategic Plan is based around four key pillars with the Clubs being absolutely placed at the centre of everything they do, those communities that are our Cricket Clubs are the first pillar.

The second pillar is based around the concept of making cricket available as a sport for people of all abilities, backgrounds, genders, race or orientation across the 12 counties of Leinster and that is the pillar of Cricket for All.

Thirdly, we wish to promote excellence in the quality of cricket at the higher levels from the pathway of the elite Leinster Youth sides through to the Bolts and the Leinster Lightning all covered in the High Performance pillar.

The fourth pillar addresses the commercial and business side of the sport as we try to embrace innovation to lead the way in promoting and commercialising cricket in Leinster in our Growth pillar.

The CL U13 & U15 Girls Head Coach role will work as part of the Women's & Girls Pathways Team reporting to the CL Diversity, Inclusion and Participation Manager. They will need to commit to coaching the U13 & U15 Girls squads on the following dates as well run training sessions for the squads as needed.
